Federated States of Micronesia

Dear Mr. Teo OBE:

The Republic of El Salvador through the General Director of the Center for Fisheries and Aquaculture Development (CENDEPESCA), a branch office of the Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock, as the national entity in charge of fisheries and aquaculture would like to express its interest for renewing the status of Cooperating Non Member for the year 2017.

My country is committed to comply with the WCPF Convention and Conservation and Management Measures that the Commission approves in order to keep fisheries stocks healthy for present and future generations. By saying this and complying with paragraph 2 of CMM 2009-11 requirements, we communicate the following statements:

- a. Reason for seeking CNM renewal: Tuna fishery brings socio economic development to our developing economy by creating job opportunities, good for exporting and food security.
- b. We have shown the Commission our commitment to comply and cooperate for complying with CMM adopted, and ensure that our flagged fishing vessels as well as nationals comply with the provisions of the Convention.
- c. We accept that our flagged fishing vessels be boarded under the high seas boarding inspections in accordance with the Commission's procedures.
- d. By presenting the Part 1 and Part 2 of the Annual Report we have shown the Commission our commitment to comply with the requested data.
- e. We have presented all of the data requested by the Commission since we were accepted as Cooperating Non Member and we are committed to continue doing so.
- f. Currently no additional information has been requested to my country.
